

rough sharp compost; and, half filling some "tall thumb-pots" with small crocks, I potted the plants singly into them, and placed them into the same house, in a mean temperature of 73° . This was done in March, and I never